Enough: Discovering Joy Through Simplicity and Generosity

On Sunday, October 18th, we will begin a church-wide study and worship emphasis called Enough: Discovering Joy Through Simplicity and Generosity. Over a period of five weeks, we will look at some of the financial challenges facing us as a nation and examine our own spending, saving, and giving habits. In addition to exploring biblical principles of financial management, we will learn ways to assess our financial situation and develop a financial plan that will allow us to experience the true joy that comes through simplicity and generosity.

At the conclusion of the emphasis, we will have the opportunity to make personal commitments of our offerings to God through our church in the coming year, by filling out 2021 Giving Commitment Cards. We will consecrate these commitments in the worship service on Sunday, November 8th. And, we'll celebrate our generosity and spiritual growth on Sunday November 29th, Celebration Sunday (and, coincidentally, Thanksgiving Sunday!).

This week, in addition to the Trifold Brochure, you will find a Stairstep Diagram, posted on our LUMC Website, describing how your generosity was distributed this year. All you need to do is go to our website (www.larchmontumc.org), click on the “Financial Stewardship Information and Resources” button and scroll down to and click on the “Stairstep Diagram.” As we explore radical generosity and spiritual growth, we encourage you to prayerfully consider where you are in financial giving today and where God is calling you to be next year.

We hope you will join us in the coming weeks as we look at how we can manage our financial resources and truly experience simplicity, generosity, and joy.

Your Financial Stewardship Team,
Gary Chiaverotti, Laura Calvert, Jonathan Clark, & Rev. Scott Rimer
